

Cookies we use

Your Privacy

When you visit any website, it may store or retrieve information on your browser, mostly in the form of cookies. This information might be about you, your preferences or your device and is mostly used to make the site work as you expect it to. The information does not usually directly identify you, but it can give you a more personalized web experience. Because we respect your right to privacy, you can choose not to allow some types of cookies. Click on the different category headings to find out more and change our default settings. However, blocking some types of cookies may impact your experience of the site and the services we are able to offer.

Marketing Cookies

These cookies are set by a range of social media services that we have added to the site to enable you to share our content with your friends and networks. They are capable of tracking your browser across other sites and building up a profile of your interests. This may impact the content and messages you see on other websites you visit. If you do not allow these cookies you may not be able to use or see these sharing tools.

Functional Cookies

These cookies allow the Website to remember choices you make (such as your user name, language, or the region you are in) and provide enhanced, more personalized features.

Targeting/advertising cookies

These cookies help our Website to deliver advertisements that are more relevant to you as user. Advertisers will place these cookies on our Website with our permission. The information the cookies gather on you can be shared with other advertisers to measure the performance of their advertisements. Additionally, another purpose of targeting and advertising cookies is to build user profiles from visitors to the Website to gather statistics on the performance of the advertisements. These cookies may be third-party, persistent cookies. This means that the cookies may follow the user as they visit other websites.

Analytical/ Performance Cookies

These cookies allow us to recognize and count the number of visitors to our website and to see how visitors move around the site. This helps us improve the way the Website works, for example, by ensuring that users find what they are looking for easily.

Strictly Necessary Cookies

Always Active

These cookies are essential for the website to function properly and cannot be turned off. They are usually set in response to your actions on the site, such as filling in forms or setting your cookie preferences.
